

GREEN TOURISM IN ITALY

Green tourists want to travel with respect for the environment, nature and the local populations, but also trying to limit travel by polluting means, preferring the train, bicycles and bike sharing services, or by walking.

I will show you the top 5 itineraries for green travel in Italy take place in

Tuscany

Maremma National Park recognized as "European excellence" in sustainable tourism the seaside village of Castiglione della Pescaia, which has long adopted a plastic-free policy

Lake Garda

thanks to its Mediterranean-type microclimate, lemons and olive trees are cultivated there

Beaches, spas, water sports and many routes to take on foot or by bike

Sardinia

the archaeological sites of the Nuragic civilization natural habitat of Europe's last wild horses at Giara dei Gesturi

the tour on the ancient locomotive from Mandas to Arbatrax

Emilia-Romagna

10 bike routes suitable for everyone within beautiful parks and nature reserves, ranging from the Po Valley to the Apennines, passing through the famous Bolognese hills.

if you love to walk there are 14 walks that cover a good 2,000 km among nature

Trentino-Alto Adige

The region has 300 km of bike paths suitable for everyone and in excellent condition

